Questionnaire for Aligning Expectations in Research Mentoring Relationships

Mentor / Supervisor:		Mentee / Student:
Time Period:		Dept / Program:

For each pair of statements, determine your preference. For example with statement pair #1, if you believe the ideal mentoring relationship focuses on common research interests, select 1, 2, or 3. Or if you think the ideal relationship focuses on effective working and communication styles, select 4, 5, or 6. Avoid filling in "3.5" for your responses.

	Early Stages of the Mentoring Relationship and Choosing Mentors/Mentees
1	In an ideal mentoring relationship, the mentor and mentee should have similar research interests	1 2 3 4 5 6	In an ideal mentoring relationship, both should have similar working and communication styles

3	Mentors should only accept mentees when they have specific & deep knowledge of the mentee's research topic	1 2 3 4 5 6	Mentors can provide overall guidance, and so should feel free to accept mentees from a broad range of disciplines
4	A personal and friendly relationship between mentor and mentee is important for a successful relationship	1 2 3 4 5 6	A professional relationship is advisable to maintain objectivity for both mentee and mentor during their work
5	The mentor is responsible for providing emotional support & encouragement to the mentee	1 2 3 4 5 6	Personal counselling and support are not the responsibility of the mentor
6	The mentor should play a significant role in deciding on the research focus for the mentee	1 2 3 4 5 6	The research focus should be selected by the mentee
7	When choosing research topics, I prefer to work on projects with potential for high payoffs, even if it involves high risk	1 2 3 4 5 6	When choosing research topics, I prefer to work on projects that have a strong & safe chance of success, even if the payoff is low
8	The mentor should decide how frequently to meet with the mentee	1 2 3 4 5 6	The mentee should decide when she/he wants to meet with the mentor
9	The mentor should provide the rules and guidelines for the program or dept to the mentee	1 2 3 4 5 6	It is the mentee's responsibility to gather and learn the rules and guidelines of the program or dept
10	The mentor is responsible for finding funding until the mentee graduates or completes the program	1 2 3 4 5 6	Mentees are responsible for finding their own sources of funding
	Middle Stages of the Mentoring Relationship
11	The mentor should be the primary guide for the mentee in their academic and professional goals	1 2 3 4 5 6	The mentee should gather multiple mentors as they work toward their academic and professional goals
12	The mentor should be the first place to turn when the mentee has problems with the research project	1 2 3 4 5 6	Mentees should try to resolve problems on their own, including seeking input from others, before bringing a research problem to the mentor
13	The mentor should check regularly that the mentee is working consistently and finishing tasks	1 2 3 4 5 6	The mentee should work independently and productively, and ask for help when needed
14	The mentor should develop an appropriate plan and timetable of research and study for the mentee	1 2 3 4 5 6	The mentee should develop their own plan and timetable of research and study, and seek input from the mentor only as needed
	Advanced Stages of the Mentoring Relationship
15	The mentor should initiate the preparation of presentations, papers, and reports	1 2 3 4 5 6	Presentations, papers, and reports should be started with a first draft by the mentee
16	The mentor should insist on seeing all drafts of work (presentations, thesis, papers, etc) to ensure that the mentee is on the right track	1 2 3 4 5 6	Mentees should submit drafts of work (presentations, thesis, papers, etc) only when they want constructive criticism from the mentor
17	It's the mentor's responsibility to first explain about co-authorship early in the process	1 2 3 4 5 6	It's the mentee's responsibility to make sure there is mutual understanding about co-authorship
18	The mentor is responsible for providing career advice and professional connections to the mentee	1 2 3 4 5 6	Because professional options these days are numerous, mentees should seek career advice and connections from other sources

Using the "Questionnaire for Aligning Expectations in New Mentoring Relationships"

The Role of Expectations

Aligning expectations and goals is a constant theme in the literature on mentoring relationships and supervision. The expectations do not need to be identical for both sides (and would be unrealistic), but a thorough discussion of expectations can greatly increase the likelihood of a productive collaboration and minimize conflicts. Relevant expectations in the context of research mentoring and supervision can relate to:

- understandings of what research is
- appropriate roles of mentors and mentees, supervisors and employees, etc
- what is professional behavior and how respect is expressed to the mentor and mentee
- the likely consequences of asking questions or acknowledging problems
- how both the mentor and mentee can be pro-active and actively listen to each other
- and many other issues.

Mismatches of expectations are a constant theme in the literature on supervision and mentoring. To help bring some of these differences in expectations into the open for discussion, a possible strategy is using this questionnaire. This tool has been designed as a discussion starter for use by supervisors and students.

Our experience suggests that the tool is especially effective when users of this form recognize that
- there are no "right" answers to the items on the questionnaire
- responses are likely to be different at different stages of academic or professional progress
- even identical numerical responses can correspond to different thoughts and expectations
- the purposes of using this form are:
  - to structure a fruitful discussion about the reasons why different responses may have been selected, and
  - to decide on appropriate ongoing actions for the current participants and stage

Suggestions for Use

We suggest the following process for using this form.
- make sure both parties have a blank copy of the questionnaire
- both parties fill out the questionnaire separately
- set up a meeting that will be focused on this questionnaire
- at the meeting, start by comparing the responses given for each statement by each person
- discuss thoroughly the significance of each response (i.e. answer what each response means for each person)
- provide suggestions on how you'll address different responses and expectations
- consider repeating the process at various points (e.g. once per year, during critical transitions of the mentee's academic timeline, etc)
